HARRY BERTOIA untitled (Infinity Cloud)

USA, c. 1955 | beryllium copper, bronze
17 h x 28 w in (43 x 71 cm)

This early sculpture is a predecessor to Bertoia's "Nova" series of hanging forms. Using bundles of beryllium copper wires, Bertoia has created a highly complex form that twists and folds into itself. A rare and early sculpture by the master metalsmith. Sold with letter of authenticity from Val Bertoia.

Provenance: Fairweather Hardin Gallery, Chicago

Estimate: $15,000–20,000

Result: $8,050
