ANGELO TESTA sculpture

USA, c. 1978 | acrylic over balsa wood
11½ h × 28½ w × 5¾ d in (29 × 72 × 15 cm)

Sculpture maquette for the Peerless Confection Company commission in Chicago. This initial design would have hung over the street, so Testa developed four more designs for the project. Scaled 1/2 inch equals one foot, this is the original design conceived and built by Testa.

Provenance: Collection Of The Artist; Daniel Czubak, Chicago

Estimate: $4,000–5,000
