ICO PARISI prototype bar cart

made in Italy for Singer | Italy, c. 1952 | French walnut, brass, glass
29½ h × 37 w × 16½ d in (75 × 94 × 42 cm)

This cart was designed and made by Ico Parisi as a prototype for potential distribution by Singer in the United States. The cart was not developed as a manufactured piece and is unique. Singer and Sons imported and manufactured many designs by Carlo Mollino, Ico Parisi, Carlo di Carli and Gio Ponti in the early 1950s.

Provenance: Singer Family Collection, New York

Estimate: $8,000–10,000
