MARK DI SUVERO
untitled

USA, 1972 | mild steel
10 h × 8 w × 2¼ d in (25 × 20 × 6 cm)

Incised signature with stamped copyright, date and numbered 129 from the edition of 250. Known for his large-scale, outdoor steel sculptures, Di Suvero's work is reminiscent of expressionist and cubist styles rendered in three-dimensions. He has exhibited with Gagosian and Paula Cooper in New York and his work is in numerous public collections including the Walker Art Center and the National Gallery of Art.
