

MODERN DESIGN

301

LEZA MCVEY
bottle with stopper

USA, c. 1960 | hand built glazed stoneware
16½ h × 6½ w × 5 d in (42 × 17 × 13 cm)

Leza McVey studied at the Cleveland Institute of Art, and taught at Cranbrook with Maija Grotell from 1947 through 1955. McVey's ceramics were among the most innovative and original of her time. Marked with incised signature on bottom: [Leza].

Estimate: $15,000–20,000

Auction

03 October 2004
noon ct

Wright

1440 West Hubbard Street
Chicago IL
t 312 563 0020 f 312 563 0040

wright20.com
bid@wright20.com

WRIGHT