CARLO MOLLINO Casa M 3

Italy, 1946 | vintage gelatin silver print
7 h x 5 w in (18 x 13 cm)

This photograph of Carlo Mollino's apartment illustrates his unique and eclectic approach to design. The ceiling and floor of this photograph were altered according to instructions from Mollino that he wrote directly onto the back of the work. The alteration isolates the interior details of the room and adds drama to his already elaborate space. Archivaly framed and signed with Mollino's office stamp. Literature: Carlo Mollino, Ferrari, pg. 56 illustrates this photograph Carlo Mollino: Architecture as Autobiography, Brino, pg. 109 illustrates a version of this photograph

Provenance: Fulvio Ferrari, Italy Private collection

Estimate: $1,500–2,000

Result: $5,000
