MIGUEL BERROCAL

Paloma jewelry chest and vanity

Spain, 1970-1973 | nickel-plated bronze, mirrored glass, brass
9 h × 22 w × 24½ d in (23 × 56 × 62 cm)

This rare design unfolds from a minimal box, becoming a mirrored jewelry chest with sixteen felt-lined drawers and hinged mirrors. The central motif is an homage to Paloma Picasso, with the brass head becoming a wearable bracelet. Although numbered 2000, the limited edition was never completed and far fewer examples exist. Impressed signature to vanity: [iara 369/2000 Berrocal Berrocal] and impressed to bracelet: [Berrocal 3099].

Literature: Antologica Berrocal (1955-1984), Gallego, ppg. 220, 232-234

Estimate: $25,000–30,000

Result: $24,000
