PHILLIP LLOYD POWELL dining tables, set of three

USA, c. 1962 | walnut, carved wood with applied silver and gold leaf, lapis lazuli
28½ h × 49 w × 36 d in (72 × 124 × 91 cm)

An excellent set of tables that can be used separately or together to form a large surface. Powell has commented that gold and silver leaf in a patchwork pattern was one of his favorite techniques. The reflective metallic surface accentuates the deeply carved bases while highlighting its own luminous characteristics. In addition, clusters of semi-precious lapis lazuli are inlaid into the polished solid wood tabletops.

Estimate: $30,000–40,000

Result: $50,400
