

DESIGN

Auction

26 March 2015
noon ct

Wright

1440 West Hubbard Street
Chicago IL
t 312 563 0020 f 312 563 0040

wright20.com
bid@wright20.com

252

USONIAN

stools for the Randall Fawcett House, pair

USA, c. 1950 | lacquered plywood, upholstery
16½ h × 18¼ w × 18¼ d in (42 × 46 × 46 cm)

The Randall Fawcett House was designed by Frank Lloyd Wright in 1955 and completed in 1961. These stools were made for the Fawcett House by Bob Beharka, Wright's apprentice when building the structure, though they were never used in the home.

Provenance: Private collection, Los Angeles

Estimate: $1,500–2,000

Result: $1,750

WRIGHT