CARLO NASON
collection of three ceiling fixtures

Mazzega | Italy, c. 1969 | glass, milk glass, nickel plated steel
30 h × 19 dia in (76 × 48 cm)

Born in Murano in 1935, Carlo Nason comes from a long line of glassmakers. He gained a traditional education at his own family's furnace and honed his skills in glass workshops across the island. Always innovative, Nason's designs for Mazzega combine expert craftsmanship with a modern sensibility. The following three lots illustrate the designers contemporary aesthetic and refined hand.

This collection of ceiling fixtures includes three sizes, model numbers LS 143, LS 144 and LS 145.
