

DESIGN

Auction

08 December 2016
noon ct

Wright

1440 West Hubbard Street
Chicago IL
t 312 563 0020
f 312 563 0040

wright20.com
bid@wright20.com

279

DANKMAR ADLER AND LOUIS SULLIVAN pair of windows from the Chicago Stock Exchange

USA, 1894 | stained glass, lead
36 h × 17 w in (91 × 43 cm)

The stained glass windows for the Chicago Stock Exchange were executed by George Louis Healy and Louis Julian Millet. These windows were originally part of a large arrangement installed directly above the trading floor. Less than half of the original glass art from the Chicago Stock Exchange was recovered making this an exceptionally rare pair of panels.

Provenance: Chicago Stock Exchange | Private Collection

Literature: The Trading Room: Louis Sullivan and The Chicago Stock Exchange, Vinci, ppg. 9, 26, 28-29, 31, 53 Louis Sullivan: His Life and Work, Twombly, ppg. 316-317 Masterpieces of Chicago Architecture, Zulowsky and Thorne, ppg. 44-45

Estimate: $10,000–15,000

Result: $10,625

WRIGHT