GIO PONTI

chair from the Palazzo Montecatini

Italy, 1936/1938 | aluminum, vinyl, Bakelite
34½ h × 18 w × 19 d in (88 × 46 × 48 cm)

This chair was designed for the Montecatini Corporation, producers of aluminum products. Ponti challenged the notion of mass produced items as necessarily uninventive; the series utilizes multiple standardized elements combined in various ways to create six distinct forms.

This example has the original Bakelite feet. Impressed marks to bottom: [Montecatini S.A. Modello 1938].
