ISAMU KENMOCHI

collection of letters and ephemera

Japan | mixed media

This collection contains numerous personal letters between Kenmochi and Richard Gump of San Francisco, whose eponymous retail store sold the designer's goods. Also included are period product catalogs, newspaper clippings featuring Kenmochi, business cards and a small personalized holiday photo. Spanning from the early 1950s into the 1960s, this archive highlights the relationship between Kenmochi and Gump.

Provenance: Steve Cabella / Modern i Shop

Estimate: $500–700

Result: $563
