

OBLIQUE STRATEGIES

BRIAN ENO / PETER SCHMIDT

You don't have to be interested in doing your own thing

OBLIQUE STRATEGIES

One rule: become somebody different to me

BRIAN ENO AND PETER SCHMIDT

These cards contain 100 oblique strategies, which are a collection of 100 small, simple, and often contradictory rules of behavior. They are designed to be used as a source of inspiration and to help you think differently about the world around you. The strategies are arranged in a grid, and you can choose to use them in any order you like. They are a collection of 100 small, simple, and often contradictory rules of behavior. They are designed to be used as a source of inspiration and to help you think differently about the world around you. The strategies are arranged in a grid, and you can choose to use them in any order you like.

Remove yourself and content to be anonymous

Water

A very small object has power

Look in someone's territory

Don't be bothered to display your talents

Turn it inside out

27 June 2019
noon ct

1440 West Hubbard Street
Chicago IL
t 312 563 0020 f 312 563 0040

wright20.com
bid@wright20.com

BRIAN ENO AND PETER SCHMIDT
Oblique Strategies, set of two

United Kingdom, 1978/2001 | printed paper
1¾ h × 4¼ w × 3¼ d in (4 × 11 × 8 cm)

Lot includes two sets of Oblique Strategies, the card deck created by Brian Eno and Peter Schmidt as a method for breaking creative impasse. First published in 1975, this lot includes one 1978 edition and one 2001 edition.

Estimate: $600–800

Result: $390

VICTIM