JON BROOKS

Important and Unique chair

USA, 1974 | carved elm
32 h × 41 w × 43 d in (81 × 104 × 109 cm)

This work is a seminal example of Brooks' art. Unique and expressive, this piece effortlessly blends sculpture and function, unites natural and interior environments, and embodies Brooks' intention to make works "you can dance with." This work was acquired directly from the artist by neighbors of Susan Franklin Brooks, Jon's sister and the original owner of The Franklin Chair which now resides in the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. It has remained in the original collection until now.

Carved signature and date to base 'Jon Brooks 1974'.

Provenance: Acquired directly from the artist | Thence by descent

Estimate: $30,000–50,000
