FLORENCE KNOLL

Custom wall-mounted cabinet for H.J. Heinz Co, Pittsburgh

Knoll Associates | USA, 1958 | Calcutta marble, lacquered wood, aluminum
96¾ w × 16 d in (246 × 41 cm)

This custom wall-mounted cabinet was originally installed in the 6th floor executive dining room of the Jack Heinz office suite in the newly designed Heinz Riley Research Center (1958). The Center, by Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, was part of the historic H.J. Heinz Company plant complex in Pittsburgh. Florence Knoll's Planning Unit created the cohesive interior spaces for the Riley Research Center in her signature, modern style.

Cabinet features four drawers and four doors concealing storage.

Provenance: Heinz Riley Research Center, Pittsburgh | Private Collection

Estimate: $5,000–7,000

Result: $8,125
