RAYMOND BLACK FLAG, PETTIBON

Everything Went Black: Previously Unreleased Black Flag Recordings, 1978 - 1981

offset print, vinyl 12¼ h × 12¼ w in (31 × 31 cm)

This two-disk album by Black Flag on SST Records is a thing of legend. Suits, lawyers, civil strife, name changes. This is the second printing of the album : the first pressing of Everything Went Black was issued without Black Flag's name on the album. The cover art is by Raymond Pettibon and the verso of this pressing, not the one pictured above, has four illustrations by Pettibon of his trademark flyers for Black Flag's gigs as well as a long essay by Spot - I kid you not - on the album's history. Included is also a Pettibon Black flag poster that reads 5 suicide attempts and counting. No, not her -- her boyfriends and an Everything Went Black sticker. Beyond the iconic elements of Everything Went Black, it also contains two kick-ass LPs that show Black Flag at full mast, err, strength, err, potential.

This work is from the edition published by SST Records, Lawndale, CA.
