

22 November 2019

Graphic Designer

Wright, the premier auction house for fine art & design in Chicago is looking for a mid-level graphic designer to join our in-house team. Our design team produces award-winning printed books & catalogs, manages our extensive websites and provides on-going support to Wright staff by way of proposals, marketing materials, social media, branded collateral, video promotion, emails and advertising. The creative team is comprised of 10 individuals including photography, web development, retouching, social media and graphic design. You will work directly with our creative director to touch a wide-range of digital & print projects.

Wright's in-house creative team collaborates across departments, working closely together to support the company leading up to and during exhibitions & auctions held here at our gallery in Chicago, New York and most recently at our partner location in New Jersey. It is a fast-paced environment – but most notably, design driven each step of the way. A core-value of Wright's approach to all projects – thoughtful & compelling design – informs the strategy built into our brand's unique approach within the auction industry.

About Wright. Wright is the industry's leading auction house specializing in 20th century art and design. Our innovative style and superior expertise sets us apart in the industry. We value creativity and focus on the quality of presentation and content. Our world-class specialists, award-winning catalogs, pioneering website and international marketing has captured the attention of distinguished collectors & designers around the globe. Wright is located in Chicago's West Loop neighborhood and is home to our consignment offices, production team and creative staff.

Apply if

- You have sensitive typographic skills and experience designing for dynamic digital editorial
- You practice conceptually-driven problem solving for all projects large & small
- You are a willing collaborator & enthusiastic communicator
- You want to find a place that balances sophisticated layout/print experience with digital marketing
- You'd like the chance to collaborate with photographers, and test your skills with motion/video in a creative team environment
- You're interested in contemporary art, design and vintage luxury
- You can work autonomously and juggle simultaneous projects while still meeting the require deadlines
- You are open to constructive criticism and can make on-the-fly changes as directed
- No detail is too subtle or project too small for your creative detail & discerning eye

Ultimately, Wright's team is searching for a professional, team-oriented individual who is committed to creating the highest level of design in the industry to join our tight-knit team of creatives. Please note, while we are seeking a mid-level designer, junior level candidates with strong portfolios will be considered.

Qualifications

- 1–4 years experience in professional design studio or agency
- Knowledge of current digital technology, design for web, responsive & mobile design.
- Proficiency in Adobe Creative Suite
- Experience with After Effects
- Experience using Figma or Sketch for digital comps
- Experience with Mailchimp templates / basic html
- Bonus: Final Cut pro / video editing experience

To apply, please submit cover letter, résumé and portfolio/link to website to Jennifer Mahanay at apply@wright20.com

